

Our design consists of a solution that allows for simple and effective one handed steering of a walker. The design is adaptable to be used for either arm and can be folded into smaller pieces to make it more portable.

Screenshots of Pamphlet pages at its current state:

